

Chapter 9 Review

Be able to answer all of the following questions.

1. Why were Henry Ford's Model T cars affordable to most people?
2. Explain why Albert Fall became the first cabinet member to go to jail.
3. Why did labor unions lose so much public support in the period immediately following the war?
4. How did Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer excuse his unwarranted search and seizures of suspected communists?
5. An anarchist believes?
6. What disease was spread in World War I and continued to spread immediately following the war?
7. What happened to Warren Harding?
8. What effect did cars have on American cities?
9. What is the name for a person from another country yet living in the U.S.?
10. How did consumer spending change in the 1920s?
11. Why were farmers not doing well?
12. What was welfare capitalism used for?
13. Explain President Coolidge's political philosophy.
14. What was an effect of the Red Scare?
15. What is an arms race?
16. What group was encouraging nations around the world to revolt and set up new social systems in their own nations?
17. What is installment buying?
18. Give two examples of welfare capitalism.
19. Identify the first mass produced car.
20. How did advertising change in the 1920s?
21. Identify one area of the economy that was not doing well in the 1920s.
22. Name two consumer products in high demand in the 1920s, other than the car.
23. Of what crime were Sacco and Vanzetti accused?
24. What was Henry Ford's position on labor unions?
25. Why did the government restrict the number of immigrants from certain parts of Europe?
26. Did labor unions support new immigration laws? Why or why not?
27. Did government regulation of businesses increase or decrease in the 1920s?
28. Define reparations.
29. Identify a key labor union leader of the 1920s.
30. Identify the major car building city.
31. What is a suburb?
32. Why did suburbs grow?
33. Identify the agreement that rejected war as a way to settle international arguments.